

What the Convention Lobby isn't telling you about our Declaration of Independence

Article 5 of the U.S. Constitution provides two ways of amending our Constitution: (1) Congress proposes amendments and sends them to the States for ratification (this was done with our existing 27 Amendments); or (2) Congress calls a convention for proposing amendments if 2/3 of the State Legislatures apply for it.

Congress has never called a convention under Article V - they are dangerous!

But today, various factions are lobbying State Legislators to ask Congress to call an Article V convention. They use various "hooks" - proposed amendments on such appealing subjects as "congressional term limits", "balancing the federal budget", "taking money out of politics", or "limiting the power and jurisdiction of the federal government". But nothing in Article V limits the convention to subjects specified by State legislatures. So the subject of a state's application for a convention is nothing more than bait designed to attract specific groups of people to get them to support an Article V convention.

Moreover, the phrase, "a Convention for proposing Amendments", which appears within Article V, doesn't restrict the Delegates to the Convention to proposing Amendments! That's because our Declaration of Independence recognizes that a People have the "self-evident Right" "to alter or to abolish" their government and set up a new government.¹ We've already invoked that Right twice: In 1776 we invoked it to throw off the British Monarchy; and in 1787, James Madison invoked it to throw off our first Constitution, the Articles of Confederation, and set up our current Constitution which created a new Form of Government.

This is what happened:

There were defects in the Articles of Confederation, so on Feb. 21, 1787 [\[link\]](#), the Continental Congress called a convention to be held in Philadelphia

"for the sole and express purpose of revising the Articles of Confederation"

But the Delegates ignored their instructions from Congress and similar instructions from the States [\[link\]](#) and wrote a new Constitution which created a new Form of Government. Furthermore, the new Constitution included its own new and easier mode of ratification: Whereas amendments to the Articles of Confederation had to be approved by the Continental Congress and all of the then 13 States; ² the new Constitution provided at Article VII thereof, that it would be ratified when only 9 States approved it.

² See ART. 13 of the Articles of Confederation [\[link\]](#).

And in Federalist No. 40, James Madison, who was a Delegate to the Federal “amendments” Convention of 1787, invoked the Declaration of Independence as justification for the Delegates’ ignoring their instructions and writing a new Constitution which created a new Form of Government.³

If we have a convention today, the Delegates will have that same power to get rid of our second Constitution and impose a third Constitution. New Constitutions are already prepared or in the works! One of them, the Constitution for the Newstates of America [\[link\]](#), is ratified by a national referendum (Art. XII, §1). The States are dissolved and replaced by regional governments answerable to the new national government. And we are to be disarmed under this proposed Constitution (Art. I, Part B. §8).

So why was the convention method added to Article V? The Anti-federalists at the Convention wanted another convention so they could get rid of the Constitution just drafted [\[link\]](#). Madison & Alexander Hamilton went along with adding the convention method because they understood that a people always have the right to meet in convention and draft a new constitution whether the convention method were in Article V or not. And when, shortly after the Convention, the Anti-federalists started clamoring for another convention, Madison, Hamilton and John Jay promptly started warning against it [\[link\]](#).

So now we can see the real agenda of those (primarily George Soros and the Kochs) who are financing the push for a convention: ⁴ A convention provides the opportunity (under the pretext of merely seeking amendments) to replace our existing Constitution with a new constitution which moves us into a completely new system of government, such as the North American Union (NAU). Under the NAU, Canada, the United States, and Mexico are politically integrated and a Parliament and combined militarized police force are set up over them. ⁵

This War over our Constitution isn’t between “Conservatives” and “Liberals”. It is between the Globalists and those of us who want to maintain our existing Constitution and national sovereignty. Of the 4 US Supreme Court Justices who warned against another convention, two were Liberals and two were Conservatives [\[link\]](#).

When convention supporters insist that the Framers meant for State Legislatures to use the convention method of amending the Constitution to rein in an out-of-control federal government, they are making stuff up. Please don’t pass any more applications for an Article V convention; and please rescind the applications your State has already passed.

⁴ As to the funding behind the push for another convention, see, e.g., link and link and link.

⁵ For the Love of God, our Country and our posterity, READ the Council on Foreign Relations’ Task Force Report on the NAU [\[link\]](#). This is what the Globalist Elite want and can get with a convention!
