

The Momentum is FOR Rescission—and It's Increasing!

End of Year	# of States that Rescinded	State Rescissions: Running Total	# of new States passing an application	New States with Applications : Running Total	TOTAL # of states with 1 or more apps
2000	1	1	0	0	47
2001	2	3	0	0	45
2003	1	4	0	0	44
2004	3	7	0	0	41
2007	1	8	0	0	40
2008	0	8	1	1	41
2009	2	10	0	1	39
2010	2	12	0	1	37
2011	0	12	1	2	38
2012	0	12	1	3	39
2014	0	12	2	5	41
2015	0	12	1	6	42
2016	1	13	1	7	42
2017	3	16	2	9	41
2021	2	18	0	9	39
2022	1	19	1	10	39
2023	1	20	0	10	38
2024	1	21	0	10	37
2025	4	25	0	10	33

*Since 2,000, there were 2.5 times more states that rescinded all applications asking Congress to call a convention; than new states (i.e., without applications) that passed an application.

 In the past decade, there were 3.25 times more states that rescinded all applications asking Congress to call a convention; than new states (i.e., without applications) that passed an application.

NOTE: Currently, the following 17 States have no applications asking Congress to call a convention: California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Maryland, Massachusetts, Montana, New Jersey, New Mexico, Nevada, New York, Oregon, Virginia, Washington State.